THE DAILY CLARION

Friday, ::::::: January 11, 1867 A Boston Minister has been preaching against tilting hoops. He says he can't shut his eye to the abomination any longer. "The work of a thousand men for four years" is the inscription upon the immense railroad bridge which has just been crected across the Susquehanna River at Havre de Grace, Maryland.

A gentleman from Northern Ohioalways regarded as a splendid business manager-tried a plantation in Mississippi, this season, and reports that he is out of pocket about $12,000 over his crop, and to use his own language has "let out." He says the "colored men may fight nobly, but they don't work worth a d-n.

FASSMANN'S PATENT IRON TIES!!

For Cotton Bales. UNITED STATES PATENT, APRIL, 1865. IN FASSMAN'S PATENT IRON TIES, the hosp for the button is punched with two holes at one end and fifteen at the other. The band has only to be drawn tight, the holes in the two ends JOHN YOUNG, JR. to be brought together,—the two hole end on top—and the button inserted. One button will answer, but it is better to insert two.

With the Buckle Tie, one end of the hoop is fastened to one section of the Buckle, the other end is inserted in the other section, and simply shoved through it under the other end as long as there is any slack. A bite on the buckle holds it securely to

SADDLERY. HARNESS,

India Rubber & Leather Bands,

Sand Specification of the buckle bounds it securely to to its place.

The hoops are painted to prevent rust, and cut in lengths of 10, 10½ and 1 feet. Ten feet are most generally used, but 10½ and 11 are sometimes required for large bales. The buckles are fastened to the hoops, the buttons will be put up in small boxes. The Weight is About 10 Pounds to the Bale of Cotton.

The advantages of iron over rope for baling cotton are now universally acknowledged. It holds the bale in a much smaller compass; is applied and fasened with as much facility, both in the country pressing and the re-compressing at the sea ports; pressing and the re-compressing at the sea ports; lessens immensely the risk from fire; is stronger, and its strength is not impaired by time and exposure as is that of rope. This last advantage has seed strikingly manifested during the war. Thoubands of bales of Cotton have been lost by the rotting and breaking of Rope which could have been preserved if Iron hoops had been used. In addition to this, it can be furnished cheaper than Rope. The derangement of labor in the hemp growing States has reduced the supply of hemp to such an extent as to cause prices to rule unprecedently high: indeed a sufficiency for baling a moderate cotton crop. treet, New Orleans.

as to cause prices to rule unprecedently high: indeed a sufficiency for baling a moderate cotton crop, cannot be relied on at any price.

I have arranged for the importation of a large quantity of the best English Iron, and have made arrangements with Messrs. Chambers & Latting for the sale and delivery of my Ties.

The undersigned, Fire Warden and Fire Inspec-tor of the New Orleans Insurance Companies, are of opinion that the Iron Tie affords greater protection against loss in case of fire than the old style of baling J. YOUENES, Fire Warden, JOHN ADAMS, Fire Inspector.

I concur in the above ALFRED BELANGER. Ex-Chief Engineer, Fire Department. SHIP REFUGE, NEW ORLEANS, July 7, 1859.

H. Fassmann, Esq , Orleans Cotton Press: Sir: In January last I received from your Press 1089 bales of cotton, of which about 1000 were recom-pressed and bound with your new "Iron Tie." I can safely affirm that the cotton so bound was re-ceived in better order than it generally comes from the Presses, that it stowed better, and enabled the the Presses, that it stowed better, and enabled the ship to carry more than on any previous voyage.

The cotton when discharged from the ship in Liverpool, was in better order than the repe bound cotton, it is highly preferable for a ground tier, as dampness from the ballast has no effect upon it, for it is well known by practical men that dampness will rot the rope bound. I can confidently recommend your "Iron Tie," as I took this lot for an experiment and carefully watched it both in loading and discharging.

I am Sir, Yours Respectfully, JOHN HOWARD, Master. CHAMBERS & LATTING, Cotton Factors, Agents for Fassmann's Iron Ties
